It was a wild, dangerous plan that had burst into Jimmy's mind, but the killer must be stopped and there was no other hope. With a prayer on his lips, Jimmy sent his plane thundering past the disc and straight toward the rocky floor of the valley. The saucer was whirling

Jimmy laughed shakily. "I licked the town bully once; when I was a kid. He was twice my size, but he was soft in the belly. I hit him there and won. So I kind of figure even the toughest rats have soft bellies. I just hit them there . . . and won again."
